

Alpha Level 3

A Day at the Market

Written by Marilyn Woolley
Photography by Michael Curtain

Word Study

A Complete the sentences with the right forms of words.

Word Box

~~cost~~ ~~overseas~~ ~~delicious~~ ~~scale~~ ~~spicy~~ ~~buy~~ ~~weight~~

- How much does this book cost ?
- I have delicious ice cream.
- I like spicy food such as red pepper sauce.
- I really want to buy this shirt.
- I stepped on a scale. My weight was 80 Kg.
- Jake returned from overseas tour.

B Look and fill in the blanks.

Ex.

-  a carton of eggs
-  a bag of oranges
-  two pieces of beef
-  six slices of cheese
-  five loaves of bread
-  two cans of tuna

Comprehension

C Read the story again. Fill in the chart.

Word Box

unpack their food, are starting to pack up, go home to rest, clean up the stalls, set up scales, put up signs, count the money, set up the stalls

When they arrive the market, the food sellers ...	By the time they leave the market, the food sellers...
unpack their food set up scales put up signs set up the stalls	are starting to pack up go home to rest clean up the stalls count the money

D Read the story again. Complete the each sentence.

gives, sells, wraps
up, calls out,
comes from

"You'll like this cheese."
 "I like this meat too. It's my favorite."
 "They're all good, but the snapper is fantastic."
 "Sweet juicy oranges!"
 "Everything was baked fresh this morning."

- Jim calls out to shoppers as they pass his stall.
He said, "Sweet juicy oranges!"
- Carla, the baker gives us small pieces of fresh bread.
She said, "Everything was baked fresh this morning"
- Sid's cheese comes from factories nearby or overseas.
He said, "You'll like this cheese."
- Mary wraps some spicy of meat.
She said, "I like this meat too. It's my favorite."
- Ali sells seafood such as fish, shrimp, and octopus.
He said, "They're all good, but the snapper is fantastic."

A Complete the sentences with the right forms of words.

Word Box

~~cost~~ ~~overseas~~ ~~delicious~~ ~~scale~~ ~~spicy~~ ~~buy~~ ~~weight~~

1. How much does this book cost ?

2. I have delicious ice cream.

3. I like spicy food such as red pepper sauce.

4. I really want to buy this shirt.

5. I stepped on a scale. My weight was 80 Kg.

6. Jake returned from overseas tour.

B Look and fill in the blanks.

Ex.

piece

bag

slice

carton

can

loaf

1.  a carton of eggs

2.  a bag of oranges

3.  two pieces of beef

4.  six slices of cheese

5.  five loaves of bread

6.  two cans of tuna

C Read the story again. Fill in the chart.

Word Box

unpack their food, are starting to pack up, go home to rest, clean up the stalls, set up scales, put up signs, count the money, set up the stalls

When they arrive the market, the food sellers ...	By the time they leave the market, the food sellers...
unpack their food set up scales put up signs set up the stalls	are starting to pack up go home to rest clean up the stalls count the money

D Read the story again. Complete the each sentence.

gives, sells, wraps
up, calls out,
comes from

"You'll like this cheese."

"I like this meat too. It's my favorite."

"They're all good, but the snapper is fantastic."

"Sweet juicy oranges!"

"Everything was baked fresh this morning."

- Jim calls out to shoppers as they pass his stall.
He said, "Sweet juicy oranges!"
- Carla, the baker gives us small pieces of fresh bread.
She said, "Everything was baked fresh this morning"
- Sid's cheese comes from factories nearby or overseas.
He said, "You'll like this cheese."
- Mary wraps some spicy of meat.
She said, "I like this meat too. It's my favorite."
- Ali sells seafood such as fish, shrimp, and octopus.
He said, "They're all good, but the snapper is fantastic."