

Level 2. Deserts

Alpha Readers

Deserts

Written by Keith Pigdon

A Unscramble the letters to make a word.

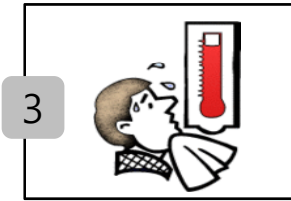

r n ai

rain

nd a s

sand

o h t

hot

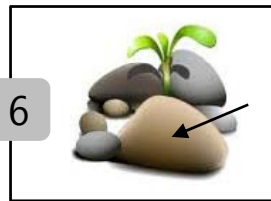

i nd w

wind

r ck o

rock

o ne st

stone

B Complete the box. Then fill in the blanks with the words from the box.

Adjectives ending with -y

lots of stones – stony

lots of clouds – cloudy

lots of curls – curly

lots of rocks – rocky

lots of sand – sandy

lots of rain – rainy

1. This is a sandy desert. (lots of sand)

2. We had rainy days last month. (lots of rain)

3. She has short curly hair. (lots of curls)

4. Some rocky deserts can get very hot. (lots of rocks)

C Complete the chart using the same sentence pattern.

There are different kinds of deserts in the world.

This is a rocky desert.

This is a stony desert.

This is a sandy desert.

This is a polar desert.

D Draw a picture of a desert. Then complete the science report.

Science Report

This is a sandy desert.
(What kind of desert is it?)

Sandy deserts are covered with sand.

(What do the deserts look like?)

Some sandy deserts are hot and others are cold.

(How is the weather?)

draw

Answers vary.