One day I found a sick bird. I took it to my room and looked after it.
 I bought a mirror and some seed for it. I named the bird Rainbow.
 He got much better after a few days.

Middle

The next morning, Rainbow flew out of my room and took off.
 I set up his box outside. I made a trail of bread crumbs so he could see our garden and come back. But Rainbow didn't return until I ran out of seed.

End

A few days later, Rainbow came back with his friend. My father and I built them a proper box for a nest just in time.

Rainbow, room, seed, better, sick, mirror, trail, garden,
 out of my room, crumbs, time, friend, nest

D Imagine you found a sick bird. Then write a story using the past tense.

Sunshine (the bird's name)

One day I found a sick bird. I felt sorry for it.
 (How would you feel?)

(What would you do for the bird?)

First, I took it to my house and kept it warm with a blanket.

Second, I fed it some seed and water.

Finally, I named the bird Sunshine.
