

Alpha Readers

Level 2. Socks Off!

Socks Off!

Written by Greg Lang

Illustrated by Bettina Guthridge

A Unscramble the letters to make new words.

yell
e y l l
to shout very loudly

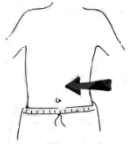

tickle
k t ck i l e
to touch someone lightly so that they laugh

grab
a b g r
to try to get or catch someone/something

tummy
m m u t y
the front part of your body below your chest

floor
o o r f l
the flat surface that you walk on indoors

pull
p l l u
to move someone/something towards yourself

B Write the word on or off on the line.

1 It's very dark. Let's turn on the light.

2 She tried on many shoes to buy one.

3 Time to go to bed. Turn off the TV.

4 Before you come in, please take off your shoes.

C Complete the sentences using the past tense of verbs.

before he goes to bed, tickle, socks, grab, Socks Off, win

What did the boy when he was little?	He played a game called Socks Off with his father.
When did he play the game?	He played the game before he went to bed .
Why did the family plan to trick dad?	because Dad always won
What did the family do to win?	They jumped on Dad and they tickled him. Then they grabbed his socks .

D What do you usually do before you go to bed? Draw and complete the sentences about it.

I read some books
 (do the homework, read some books, watch the TV)
 before I go to bed.

Who do you usually do it with?

I usually read a book with my brother.

draw