

Alpha Readers

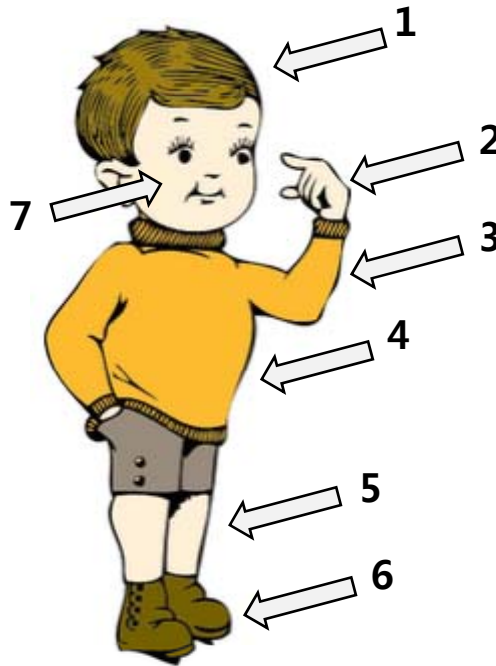

Who's That Knocking At My Door?

Retold by Marilyn Woolley
Illustrated by Steve Axelsen

A Match words and pictures and write.

- 1 head
- 2
- 3
- 4
- 5
- 6
- 7

Word Box

feet body hands arms ~~head~~ legs face

B Match the opposites.

1. long •

• small

2. big •

• narrow

3. thin •

• fat

4. wide •

• short

5. scary •

• hot

6. cold •

• funny

C Answer the questions.

1. It has _____ feet.
a. long b. big c. small
2. It has _____ legs.
a. fat b. long c. thin
3. It has a _____ body.
a. wide b. round c. small
4. It has _____ arms.
a. fat b. thin c. short
5. It has _____ hands.
a. fat b. thin c. wide
6. It has _____ face.
a. long b. wide c. round

D Number in order. Then rewrite the summary.

Soon several body parts came in and hopped on.

One day there was a knock at her door and in came two feet.

The old woman said, "You are so funny!".

An old woman lived by herself.

1. _____.
2. _____.
3. _____.
4. _____.

E Read the story again. Fill in the speech bubbles.

Word Box

You are so funny!

Come in.

Oh how funny.

