

3-2 The Emperor's New Clothes

Vocabulary

A

Unscramble and write the word.

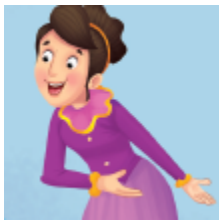

h / w / a / c / t

watch

nt / v / er / s / a servant

e / m / o / c

come

e / r / e / c / h

cheer

B

Look and write the word. One word is not used.

foolish

pretend

fine

confused

many

many

foolish

pretend

fine

Comprehension

C Read and match the sentence halves.

The emperor

He asked his servant

He pretended

● ● to put on clothes.

● ● had many fine clothes.

● ● to go with the woman.

D Number the sentences in order. Then rewrite the sentences.

1

A woman pretended to make fine clothes.

3

People started to laugh at him.

2

The emperor walked in the street with no clothes on.

1. A woman pretended to make fine clothes.
2. The emperor walked in the street with no clothes on.
3. People started to laugh at him.