

Title: Bonjour, Paris!

Word Study

A. Fill in the blanks using the words.

palace

escargots

elevator

fountains

1.

You can go to a restaurant and eat _____.

2.

The king and queen also had a _____ near Paris.

3.

You can take an _____ to the top of the Eiffel Tower.

4.

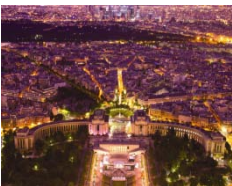

The _____ in the palace gardens are famous.

Reading Comprehension

B. Circle Yes or No.

1.

Paris is the capital of Spain.

Yes

No

2.  There is a famous story about the Cathedral of Notre Dame.
Yes No
3.  There are no new buildings in Paris.
Yes No
4.  There are many famous paintings and sculptures in the Louvre.
Yes No

C. Choose the best answer.

1. What was the Louvre before it became a museum?

- a. A cathedral
- b. The home of France's king and queen
- c. The home of France's president
- d. A library

2. What is the Champs Elysees?

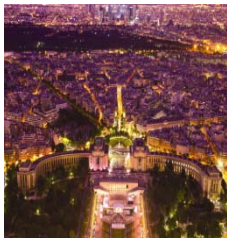

- a. A tower
- b. A river
- c. A museum
- d. A street

3. What is Montmartre?

- a. A palace
- b. A fountain
- c. A hill
- d. A sculpture

4. What is Paris's nickname?

- a. The City of Light
- b. The City of Love
- c. The City of Art
- d. The City of Stars

Summary

Fill in the blanks with the words.

sculptures	museum	cathedral	palace
------------	--------	-----------	--------

Paris is the capital of France. There are some interesting things to see in Paris. The Cathedral of Notre Dame is very old. Victor Hugo wrote a story about a man who lives in the _____. The Eiffel Tower is very famous. You can take an elevator to the top. Long ago, the King and Queen of France lived at the Louvre. Today, it is an art _____. You can see many famous paintings and _____ there. The king and queen also lived in a _____ called Versailles. The Champs Elysees is a street that goes through the Arc de Triomphe. There are many cafés and stores on this street. The Seine is a river that goes through Paris. People take long walks by the river or go on boat rides on the river. Paris is also famous for food. You can go to a restaurant and order escargots. Montmartre is a big hill in Paris. Paris is a great place to visit. When you go to France, be sure to say "Bonjour!"