

Rainbow Readers

Title: Hey, Los Angeles!

Word Study

A. Fill in the blanks using the words.

holidays

lively downtown

buses

1.

Los Angeles is a lively American city.

2.

People ride buses and trains.

3.

LA has many festivals and holidays.

4.

There are many tall buildings downtown.

Reading Comprehension

B. Circle Yes or No.

1.

Los Angeles is the capital city of California.

Yes

No

2.

Los Angeles was part of Mexico.

Yes

No

3.

Los Angeles is the largest city in the United States.

Yes

No

4.

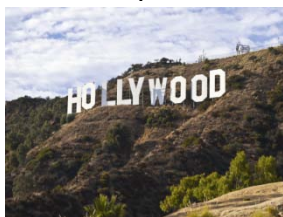

Film companies run Disneyland Universal Studios.

Yes

No

C. Choose the best answer.

1. What is Hollywood famous for?

a. International food

b. Beaches

c. The film and TV industry

d. Sports

2. What group of people were the first to settle in Los Angeles?

a. The Spanish

b. The British

c. Americans

d. Mexicans

3. What is the Getty Center?

a. A place where sports are played

b. A theater where dancers perform

c. A museum with art and peaceful gardens

d. A restful spot with a good view of the city

4. What is LA's oldest market?

- a. The Farmer's Market
- b. The International Market
- c. The Hollywood Market
- d. The Los Angeles Market

Summary

Fill in the blanks with the words.

industry	peaceful	international	festivals
----------	----------	---------------	-----------

Los Angeles (LA) is a lively city in the state of California. People from all over the world live in LA. It is an 1) international city. LA has international food, too. The Farmer's Market is the oldest market in LA. You can find foods from all over the world. LA has many 2) festivals and holidays. A very famous part of LA is Hollywood. It is the center of the TV and film 3) industry. Disneyland and Universal Studios are two famous amusement parks in LA. They are run by film companies. The oldest part of LA is the area downtown. For a more 4) peaceful experience, you can visit the Getty Center or Griffith Park. There is a lot of entertainment in LA. You can go to a theater and watch musicians perform. There is so much to do in LA. Make sure you stay long enough to see it all!