Some people think cotton has been used for more than 5,000 years. It was first used in Asia. Egyptians started to use it too. They brought it to Europe. Before cotton, clothes were made from animal skins. Cotton plants have to be planted in _____. They need sunny, hot places to grow. People used to _____ cotton by hand. Today, big machines do this. Once cotton is collected, it has to be cleaned. This is because it has many _____ and leaves in it. When it's cleaned, it gets pulled. This turns it into yarn. After that, it's pulled and _____ some more and becomes thread. Thread is used to make cloth. Then the cloth gets colored. This is all done with machines. But people used to use _____ to do this. This was hard work. Once the cloth is made and colored, it is used to make our clothes.
