Candy would not taste sweet without sugar. Sugar comes from sugarcane. This plant grows in hot places that get lots of sun. It is hard work to _____ sugarcane. Because snakes live in the field, farmers burn them first. This does not hurt the _____. When the stalks are _____, juice comes out. They clean and cook the juice to make raw sugar. To make white sugar, the raw sugar is put into a _____. It is then cooked again. This sugar is then added to foods and drinks. It is also used to make candy. The first candies were all fruit-flavored. Some candy is hard and some is soft. All candy is good! Another kind of candy is chocolate. It came from the Americas. It is not sweet, so sugar must be added. Chocolate was a drink at first. However, Europeans made it into bars and _____ them. This made them easy to transport. There are many kinds of candy. Try some!
