

Title: Inside the Supermarket

Word Study

A. Fill in the blanks using the words.

vegetables	heated	meat	cooked
------------	--------	------	--------

1.

The supermarket sells many kinds of meat.

2.

These fish need to be cooked longer.

3.

Some foods need to be heated.

4.

People can buy vegetables at the supermarket.

Reading Comprehension

B. Circle Yes or No.

1.

Fruit and vegetables take up a lot of space.

Yes

No

2.

The supermarket only sells food.

Yes

No

3.

Foods made with milk need to stay cold.

Yes

No

4.

Some packaged foods do not need to be cooked.

Yes

No

C. Choose the best answer.

1. What takes up the most space in the store?

- a. Meat
- b. Milk
- c. Packaged food
- d. Fruit and vegetables

2. Where can you find foods made from milk?

- a. With the fruit and vegetables
- b. At the front of the store
- c. Next to the meat
- d. At the back of the store

3. Which of the following is NOT sold at supermarkets?

- a. Animals
- b. Plants
- c. Medicine
- d. Pencils

4. What needs to be kept in a cold place in the supermarket?

- a. Fruit
- b. Meat
- c. Medicine
- d. Cleaning supplies

Summary

Fill in the blanks with the words.

medicine	milk	supermarket	packaged
----------	------	-------------	----------

A 1) supermarket is a special store that sells mostly food. People can buy fruit and vegetables. They can buy meat and milk, too. Meat and foods made with 2) milk need to stay cold. 3) Packaged foods take up the most space in a supermarket. Some are ready to eat, but others need to be cooked. Some foods come in cans and need to be heated. Supermarkets also sell 4) medicine, flowers, and plants. You can also buy things to clean your house. There are things for children, too. You can buy paper, pencils, and toys. The supermarket is a good place to buy many things.