

Title: Let's Race

Word Study

A. Fill in the blanks using the words.

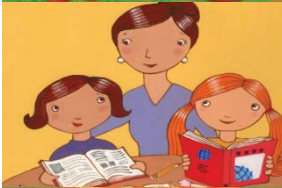

invited	pile	lead	rakes
---------	------	------	-------

1.

Mrs. Wilson brought two rakes from the garage.

2.

Mary invited Katie to her house.

3.

There was a big pile of soft leaves.

4.

Sometimes Mary was in the lead.

Reading Comprehension

B. Circle Yes or No.

1.

Katie always had to win.

Yes

No

2.

They raced sleds down the hill.

Yes

No

3.

The girls raced the ducks in the pond.

Yes

No

4.

The girls raced in the pool.

Yes

No

C. Choose the best answer.

1. What did they do in the fall?

a. They raced sleds down a hill.

b. They rode their bikes.

c. They jumped into a pile of leaves.

d. They ran around a pond.

2. What did the friends love to do most of all?

a. Rake leaves

b. Race

c. Read

d. Run

3. Why didn't Mary want to race in the pool?

a. Katie always had to win when they raced.

b. She didn't have her goggles.

c. She was too tired.

d. She had to do her homework.

4. What did the girls race to do after school?

- a. Ride bikes
- b. Eat cookies
- c. Read books
- d. Drink milk

Summary

Fill in the blanks with the words.

goggles	pool floats	landed	closet
---------	-------------	--------	--------

Katie and Mary loved to race. In the fall, they raked leaves. Leaves 1) landed on their heads. The girls raced to the leaves and jumped into a big pile. Katie said, "I won!" In the winter, they pulled sleds out of the 2) closet. They raced down a big hill. Katie said, "I won!" In the spring, they went to a park. There was a pond. Mary and Katie raced around the pond. Katie shouted, "I won!" After school, Mary invited Katie to her house. They raced to read their books. Katie said, "I won!" During summer vacation, Katie and Mary went to the pool. They put on their 3) goggles. Katie asked Mary to race, but Mary didn't want to race. It was too hot, and Katie always had to win. They decided to rest instead. They floated around the pool on 4) pool floats. Sometimes, it was fun when they didn't race.