

Title: May's Journey

Word Study

A. Fill in the blanks using the words.

factory	comfort	crate	lowered
---------	---------	-------	---------

1.

May had lived in the factory for many years.

2.

May went for a free ride in the crate.

3.

The crate was lowered to the ground.

4.

May wondered if she could leave the comfort of the factory.

Reading Comprehension

B. Circle Yes or No.

1.

May hoped to meet a princess in New York City.

Yes

No

2.

There were boxes of cheese and bread on the plane.

Yes

No

3.

The plane ride was very long.

Yes

No

4.

May was disappointed that she was not in New York City.

Yes

No

C. Choose the best answer.

1. What did the men make at the factory?

a. Crates

b. Suitcases

c. Cheese

d. Airplanes

2. How did May know what was in New York City?

a. Her mother told her about New York City.

b. She had been to New York City before.

c. She heard the men in the factory talk about New York City.

d. She had seen a movie about New York City.

3. Why didn't May know which crate to get in?

a. She couldn't read.

b. The cities' names were not on the crates.

c. The cities' names were on the bottom of the crates.

d. The crates were covered with dust.

4. How did May know she was in London?

- a. She saw a big clock.
- b. She asked someone where they were.
- c. She heard a person say "London."
- d. She saw a princess.

Summary

Fill in the blanks with the words.

princess	warehouse	suitcases	dust
----------	-----------	-----------	------

May lived in a factory. People made 1) suitcases all day. She wanted to see the outside world. She didn't know if she could leave the comfort of the factory. 2) Dust flew in the air. May decided she would travel to New York City. She had heard men talking about it. She went to the 3) warehouse and got in a crate. She did not know where the crate was going. She thought it was going to New York City. First, the crate went on a truck. The truck stopped and the crate was lowered to the ground. Then, the crate was put on a plane. She slept the rest of the way. The next morning, May learned that she was not in New York City. She was in London! May was excited to be there. Maybe she would see a 4) princess!