

Title: Rabbits

Word Study

A. Fill in the blanks using the words.

chew	rabbits	deserts	hop
------	---------	---------	-----

1.

Rabbits live in deserts and snowy mountains.

2.

Rabbits chew with their big teeth.

3.

Rabbits can hop away very fast.

4.

Rabbits have soft hair.

Reading Comprehension

B. Circle Yes or No.

1.

All rabbits are white.

Yes

No

2.

A rabbit's teeth grow all the time.

Yes

No

3.

Rabbits can chew through wood.

Yes

No

4.

Baby rabbits do not drink milk.

Yes

No

C. Choose the best answer.

1. Where do rabbits live?

- a. In holes
- b. In deserts
- c. In mountains
- d. All of the above

2. What are baby rabbits called?

- a. Kittens
- b. Pups
- c. Cubs
- d. Rabbitlings

3. According to the story, what do rabbits eat?

- a. Mice
- b. Flowers
- c. Bugs
- d. Nuts

4. Why do rabbits chew on wood?

- a. They are hungry.
- b. It keeps their teeth short.
- c. It makes their teeth sharp.
- d. They use it to make a nest for their babies.

Summary

Fill in the blanks with the words.

chewing	soft	kittens	mountains
---------	------	---------	-----------

Rabbits have 1) soft hair. They are nice to hold. Rabbits can be many different colors. They have big ears and big eyes. They use their ears to hear other animals. They use their eyes to watch for danger. Rabbits use their long back legs to hop fast. Rabbits live in deserts and snowy 2) mountains. They make holes in the ground or under trees. Rabbits have many babies called 3) kittens. Kittens are born with their eyes closed. They have no hair. Mother rabbits take care of their babies. They give them milk. They make soft beds in their homes. Rabbits eat fruit, plants, flowers, and grass. They have big teeth that grow all the time. 4) Chewing on hard wood helps keep their teeth short. These pretty animals are fun to learn about.