

Title: The Chart Trick

Word Study

A. Fill in the blanks using the words.

chart	lemonade	stand	shouted
-------	----------	-------	---------

1.

Mi-Hay stopped at Greg's lemonade stand.

2.

Some people bought lemonade from Greg.

3.

Two friends looked at Chuck's chart.

4.

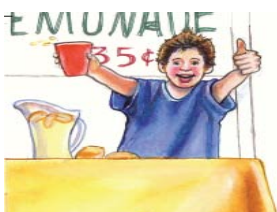

"Lemonade for sale!" Chuck shouted.

Reading Comprehension

B. Circle Yes or No.

1.

Chuck's lemonade is five cents more than Greg's.

Yes

No

2.

Chuck said that his Lemonade is better than Greg's.

Yes

No

3.

Chuck sold more lemonade every day.

Yes

No

4.

Greg's sales went up by five cups every day.

Yes

No

C. Choose the best answer.

1. Why was Greg sad?

- a. People did not buy his lemonade.
- b. His lemonade did not taste good.
- c. He didn't have any more lemonade to sell.
- d. He thought Chuck sold more lemonade.

2. Who sold more lemonade?

- a. Chuck
- b. Mi-Hay
- c. Greg
- d. Chuck and Greg

3. How did Chuck trick everyone?

- a. He lied about how many cups he sold.
- b. He wrote the days backwards on the chart.
- c. He used smaller cups.
- d. He sold his lemonade for five cents more.

4. What happened when people found out about Chuck's trick?

- a. People bought Greg's lemonade.
- b. Chuck made a new chart.
- c. Chuck sold his lemonade for the same price as Greg's.
- d. Chuck gave his lemonade to Greg.

Summary

Fill in the blanks with the words.

cents	charts	sales	tricked
-------	--------	-------	---------

Greg had a lemonade stand. He sold a cup of lemonade for thirty 1) cents. Chuck moved his lemonade stand next to Greg's. Chuck's lemonade was five cents more than Greg's. Chuck said he had the best lemonade. He made a chart to show his 2) sales. It showed that Chuck sold more cups of lemonade every day. Mi-Hay looked at Chuck's chart. She pointed at the days of the week. Chuck wrote them backwards: Friday, Thursday, Wednesday, Tuesday, Monday. Chuck 3) tricked everyone. He sold less lemonade every day! Greg and Mi-Hay made two new charts. One chart showed Greg's sales. The other chart showed Chuck's real sales. People saw the new 4) charts. They did not buy lemonade from Chuck. They bought Greg's lemonade. Chuck was sorry he lied.