

Title: What Is That Sound?

Word Study

A. Fill in the blanks using the words.

tissue	snores	yawning	soda
--------	--------	---------	------

1.

My dad snores like a growling lion.

2.

My teacher burped because he drank a soda.

3.

I give my sister a tissue when she sneezes.

4.

My friend is yawning because he's tired.

Reading Comprehension

B. Circle Yes or No.

1.

His sister is crying.

Yes

No

2.

There is a bear in the kitchen.

Yes

No

3.

The bus driver has a bad cough.

Yes

No

4.

It is quiet in class.

Yes

No

C. Choose the best answer.

1. What sounds like a bear?

- a. His dad
- b. His sister
- c. His stomach
- d. His teacher

2. What does the bus driver's cough sound like?

- a. A bear
- b. A kitten
- c. A lion
- d. Thunder

3. What does he hear on the bus?

- a. A kitten
- b. A yawn
- c. Thunder
- d. A sneeze

4. Why was his sister sniffing?

- a. She is sad.
- b. She is tired.
- c. She has a cold.
- d. She wants a soda.

Summary

Fill in the blanks with the words.

sniffing	burp	roar	stomach
----------	------	------	---------

The world has many different sounds. He hears a sound coming from the living room. It sounds like a lion. It is his dad. He is snoring. He hears someone 1) sniffing. His sister has a cold. She is sneezing. He gives her a tissue. He hears something growling. Is it a bear? There isn't a bear in the kitchen. It is his 2) stomach. It is growling because he is hungry. He hears a 3) roar coming from the bus. It sounds like thunder. It is the bus driver. He has a bad cough. It sounds like there is a kitten on the bus. It isn't a kitten. It is his friend. He is yawning because he is tired. At school, he hears his teacher 4) burp. What sounds do you hear around you?