

Title: Where Do You Sleep at Night?

Word Study

A. Fill in the blanks using the words.

get ready	stone	tent	hut
-----------	-------	------	-----

1.

Children go home and get ready for bed.

2.

Jomo sleeps in a hut.

3.

Koko sleeps in a tent.

4.

Patrick's house is made of stone.

Reading Comprehension

B. Circle Yes or No.

1.

It is time to say good night.

Yes

No

2.

Jin sleeps in a house that floats.

Yes

No

3.

Sumara lives in the United Arab Emirates.

Yes

No

4.

Everyone sleeps in the same kind of house.

Yes

No

C. Choose the best answer.

1. What is Randy's house made of?

a. Stone

b. Logs

c. Grass

d. Bricks

2. What do children do to get ready for bed?

a. Wash their feet

b. Change their clothes

c. Watch the sun come up

d. Play games

3. What does Koko sleep in inside her tent?

a. A bed

b. A blanket

c. A sleeping bag

d. A soft mat

4. What can Kim's house do?

- a. Float on water
- b. Fly in the air
- c. Drive on land
- d. Go under water

Summary

Fill in the blanks with the words.

log	mat	fancy	floats
-----	-----	-------	--------

It is time for children to say good night. They go home and get ready for bed. Where do they sleep? Children sleep in different places all over the world. In Kenya, Jomo sleeps on a 1) mat in a cool hut. In Canada, Koko sometimes sleeps in a tent. In Vietnam, Kim sleeps on a boat. His family's house 2) floats on water. In Ireland, Patrick sleeps in a house made of stone. The stones keep them safe from strong winds. In the United States, Randy sleeps in a 3) log house. In Korea, Jin lives in an apartment. She sleeps on a soft mat on a warm floor. In the United Arab Emirates, Sumara sleeps in a bed. Her house is 4) fancy. Wind keeps the house cool. Where do you sleep at night?