

Level 1 Erosion

단어	품사	한글뜻	영문뜻	예문
shore	noun	물가	the area of land near the edge of a lake, ocean or river	Sea lizards live on the rocky shore of the Galapagos Island.
sand dune	noun	모래 언덕, 사구	a hill of sand created by the wind	The Sahara Desert is full of sand dunes.
steep	adj	가파른, 경사가 급한	being almost straight up and down	The stairs of my friend's house are very steep.
rocky	adj	바위가 많은, 암석으로 된	having or consisting of rocks	The group of climbers started its long climb up the rocky mountain.
cliff	noun	낭떠러지, 벼랑	a surface of rock, ice, or earth that extends downward very sharply	A few of us were standing at the edge of the cliff.
downhill	adj	내려가는, 활강하는	sloping down rather steeply	Riding a motorcycle downhill is dangerous.
glacier	noun	빙하	a very large body or mass of ice that moves slowly downward from a mountain valley	Water from a melting glacier is often the source of a river.
chunk	noun	큰 덩어리	a large part of something	She cut the lettuce and tomatoes into large chunks.
avalanche	noun	눈사태	a large mass of snow that suddenly slides or falls down the side of a mountain	Three skiers were buried by a sudden avalanche.
landslide	noun	산사태	a disaster in which a piece of land falls from its place	There were hundreds of people buried under the landslide.
underneath	prep	~의 아래에	located under or below something	He hid the suitcase underneath his bed.
hillside	noun	비탈	the part of a hill between its top and its bottom	Streams of rainwater rushed down the hillside.
sandy	adj	모래의, 모래투성이의	containing or covered with a lot of sand	The soil in my backyard is very sandy.
waterhole	noun	물 웅덩이, 작은 못	a small hole in the ground containing water	I saw frogs in the waterhole in our waterhole	noun	물 웅덩이, 작은 못	a natural hole or hollow containing water	garden.

-----------	------	-------------	---	---------