

Level 1 Animals of the African Grasslands

단어	품사	한글뜻	영문뜻	예문
grassland	noun	풀밭, 초원	a large, open area of country with grass	I love seeing different animals in the grasslands of Africa on the Discovery channel.
bush	noun	관목	a woody plant, typically shorter than a tree and with many branches	Some people trim the bushes in their gardens.
herd	noun	가축의 떼, 무리	a group of the same kind of animal that travels and feeds together	In Africa, elephants travel in large herds.
predator	noun	포식 동물, 육식 동물	an animal that feeds itself by killing and eating other animals	Polar bears are powerful predators that prey on seals.
grazer	noun	방목 가축	an animal that feeds on grass	Buffaloes, giraffes, and sheep are the examples of grazers.
muscular	adj	근육이 잘 발달된, 강건한	having strong or developed muscles	He is exercising everyday to have a muscular body.
shallow	adj	얕은	not having much depth	The children are playing in a shallow swimming pool.
leafy	adj	잎이 많은	having or covered with leaves	Green leafy vegetables are good sources of vitamins and minerals.
coarse	adj	굵고 거친	feeling rough and not smooth	She bought a thick, coarse coat for her dog.
graze	verb	풀을 뜯어먹다	to eat grass that is growing in an open field	Most wild animals in Africa graze during the day, sticking together in herds.
browser	noun	연한 잎을 먹는 소나 사슴	an animal that eats the leaves and stems of trees	Giraffes are browsers that prefer to eat the leaves of acacia trees.
shrub	noun	관목	a small leafed plant with many wooden stems	Zebras like to eat shrubs, herbs, and leaves.
browse	verb	잎을 뜯어 먹다	to eat grass or plants	Our cows are browsing in the wheat field on our farm.
prickle	noun	가시	a small, sharp growth on the branch or	Always be careful when holding a plant with thorn	noun	가시	stem of some plants	thorns.

-------	------	----	---------------------	---------