

Level 1 How Do They Make It?: Designing and Building Robots

단어	품사	한글뜻	영문뜻	예문
accurate	adj	정확한	without mistakes	Robot hands are more accurate than human hands.
autism	noun	자폐증	a condition of difficulty in thinking, expression of feelings, and communication	Megan has autism, so she has trouble showing her feelings.
feelings	noun	감정	an emotion	Kaspar helps Megan learn to show her feelings.
contact	noun	연락	the act of being in touch	A person stays in contact with the robot to make sure it is working correctly.
designer	noun	디자이너	a person who makes or draws plans for creating something	First, the designers decide why they want to build a robot.
demonstrate	verb	시범하다	to show how to do something	The prototype may demonstrate new problems.
contest	noun	시합	a race or competition for a prize	These students are preparing a robot for a contest in the USA.
contract	noun	계약	a legal agreement	Da Vinci was developed under contract with the U.S. Army.
frown	verb	쥼그리다	to make a facial expression of anger or worry	Scientists made Kaspar to show children like Megan how to smile, frown, and laugh.
download	verb	다운로드 하다	to receive data from another computer	Step five is to download the robot's "brain."
prototype	noun	원형	the original model on which other things are made	The prototype may demonstrate new problems.
robotics	noun	로봇 공학	the science of designing, building, and using robots	Robots assemble, weld, and paint new cars.
sensor	noun	감지기	a device that senses and responds to light, sound, heat, or other things	The sensors let the robot see, hear, and feel.

		소리, 움직임, and temperature	feel.
storage	noun	저장고	a place for putting things to use later	They pick an item from storage and pack it for shipping.