

Level 1 Rockets to Space

단어	품사	한글뜻	영문뜻	예문
astronaut	noun	우주 비행사	someone sent into space in a rocket	Russia was the first country to put an astronaut in space.
atmosphere	noun	대기, 공기	the air covering a planet	The atmosphere on other planets is not good for humans.
capsule	noun	캡슐	a small container	A space capsule is carried into space by a rocket.
cone	noun	원뿔	the metal piece on the end of a rocket	A cone is narrow at one end and wide at the other.
fuel	noun	연료	something that makes another thing move	Gasoline is the fuel we use in our automobiles.
idea	noun	생각, 아이디어	to think of something new	Mark came up with an idea to solve the problem.
invent	verb	발명하다	to make a new product or thing	Sandra wants to invent a machine to do her homework for her.
launch	verb	발사하다	to take off from the earth using a rocket	We launched our homemade rocket at the park.
liquid	noun	액체	a substance that moves like water	The liquid in this bottle is dangerous.
motion	noun	움직임	movement	The strange motion of the puppet made us laugh.
orbit	verb	궤도를 돌다	to go around a planet in space	Earth orbits the sun every 365 days.
parachute	noun	낙하산	a piece of equipment that slows the fall of a person who jumps from a high place	The space capsule was so big it had eight parachutes to help it land safely.
satellite	noun	위성	a man-made device that orbits or circles the Earth	Some of the satellites orbiting the Earth are used for communication.
scientist	noun	과학자	someone who studies science and nature	Marie Curie was a famous scientist from France.

