

Level 1 The Inquiry Club's Big Project

단어	품사	한글뜻	영문뜻	예문
advisor	noun	조언자, 고문	a person who gives advice and guides you	The members of the Inquiry Club were students, and their advisor was a teacher.
barely	ad	거의~하지 않다	hardly	Five minutes was barely enough time for Connor to write down all the answers.
cafeteria	noun	카페테리아, 구 내식당	a large room in a school or other building where food is served	The club members decided that the cafeteria needed to serve more healthy food.
in no time	adv	곧, 즉시	before time has passed	Because Emma was only going to ask some students the questions, she would be finished in no time.
inquiry	noun	연구, 조사	questions people ask when looking into something	Mr. Armstrong and the students decided to show the results of the inquiry to the cafeteria.
keep track	idiom	~에 대해 계속 파악하고 있다	to watch for something specific and make notes about it	Connor thought it was important to keep track of how old each student was.
menu	noun	메뉴	a list of foods available in a restaurant or cafeteria	Many of the students were not happy with the cafeteria menu.
oatmeal	noun	오트밀	a hot breakfast cereal made of oats	Olivia had oatmeal, orange juice, and a banana for breakfast that morning.
pattern	noun	모양, 양식	a model or standard of similar things	The members of the Inquiry Club noticed a pattern in the kinds of food the students ate.
pizza	noun	피자	a hot food made with sauce and cheese on top of dough	Olivia thought that pizza was not a healthy food to serve in the cafeteria.
project	noun	프로젝트	an activity or assignment people work on alone or in groups	Before the Inquiry Club could do a project, it had to be approved by Mr. Armstrong.
recommendation	noun	추천	something you recommend or suggest	After they finished their project, Olivia wrote a report with a recommendation for the cafeteria.
trash	noun	쓰레기	things people throw out	Last year, the Inquiry Club found trash that came from cans across the street.

unhealthy	adj	건강하지 못한	not good for you	Pizza, hamburgers, and hot dogs are unhealthy foods for us.
-----------	-----	---------	------------------	---