

e-future Art Classic Stories

ACS 04

The Wolf and the Seven Little Goats

through the Art Style of Camille Pissaro

Retold by Julie Sormark

A Write the correct words and match the words to their definitions.

honey

paw

knock

full

hug

1.

knock

a. to put your arms around someone to show love or friendship

2.

paw

b. to hit (a door) with your hand

3.

full

c. a thick, sweet food made by bees

4.

honey

d. not hungry because you have eaten enough

5.

hug

e. the foot of an animal

B Fill in the blanks using the words in the box.

shocked

tummy

well

stones

voice

1.

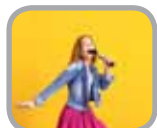

His tummy hurts because he ate too much candy.

2.

We use stones to decorate our garden.

3.

She has a nice voice and loves to sing.

4.

They were shocked when they got the news.

5.

There is an old well in the park.

C Circle Yes or No.

1.  The mother goat leaves to meet a friend. Yes / ☒ No
2.  The wolf's voice sounds too rough at first. ☒ Yes / No
3.  Honey makes the wolf's voice louder. Yes / ☒ No
4.  The wolf only swallows one baby goat. Yes / ☒ No

D Fill in the summary using the words in the box.

black shopping water swallows rough

A mother goat goes 1. shopping and leaves her seven little goats alone. Soon a wolf knocks on the door. He says he is the mother goat, but his voice is too 2. rough. The little goats don't open the door. Then the wolf eats some honey, and it makes his voice sweet. But the little goats see his 3. black paw. So the wolf puts white flour on his paw. The little goats open the door, and he 4. swallows six of them. Later, mother goat comes home. While the wolf sleeps, she cuts open his tummy and saves her six little goats. They put stones in his tummy. The wolf falls in the 5. water, and no one sees him again.