

e-future PYP Readers

LEVEL 3-2

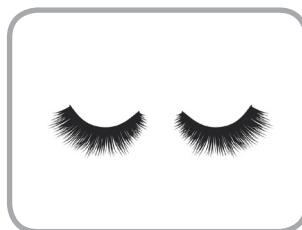

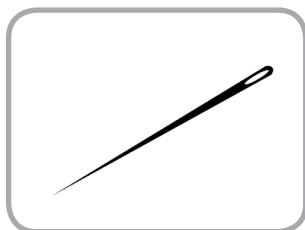

One Hump or Two?

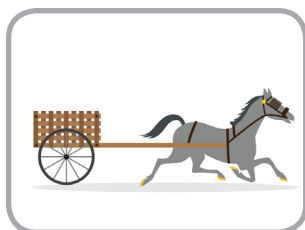

Edward Zrudlo

A Write the correct word for each picture.

cobra	kneel	eyelashes	robber
doorway	needle	harness	sword

1. needle 2. robber 3. cobra 4. eyelashes

5. harness 6. sword 7. kneel 8. doorway

B Write the antonym for the given word. Change the form if needed.

gentle	tug	rear	guide
--------	-----	------	-------

1. Mr. Eddy was guiding the students to the camels.
following

2. Camels won't hurt you if you are gentle with them.
mean

3. Mr. Eddy tugged on the rope attached to the harness.
pushed

4. The camel lowered its rear legs.
front

C Write the correct word to complete the sentence.

down through on into off about

1. Not everyone was sure about riding a camel.
2. Hunter accidentally bumped into Mrinal.
3. You can't get on a camel when it's kneeling down.
4. The camels are ready, so you can come through the doorway now.
5. "Hang on , everyone!" Mr. Eddy said.
6. Be careful that you don't fall off the camel's back.

D Write sentences using so or such (a) and the given words.

so and such (a)

Both so and such (a) make adjectives stronger.
Use so when there is no noun after the adjective.
When there is a noun, use such.

- They're so cute!
- Their eyelashes are so long and curly.
- Camels have such long legs!
- It was such a fun field trip.

1. watching golf / boring
→ Watching golf is so boring .
2. pandas / gentle animals
→ Pandas are such gentle animals .
3. this soup / delicious
→ This soup is so delicious .
4. she / hard-working / student
→ She's such a hard-working student .

A Circle T for true or F for false. (pp. 2-9)

1. There are camels in India and Australia. ☒ T / F
2. Hunter pretends to be a thread. T / ☒ F
3. Camels aren't very strong. T / ☒ F
4. The doorway is quite small. ☒ T / F
5. Female camels have one hump. T / ☒ F
6. Tess knows the two types of camels. ☒ T / F

B Answer the questions. (pp. 9-14)

1. Which is true about camels?
 - a. They have short eyelashes.
 - ☒ b. Their knees have no hair.
 - c. They store water in their humps.
 - d. They are not able to kneel.
2. Which is NOT true about the kids' camel ride?
 - a. So Reem wasn't sure she wanted to do it.
 - b. Tess wanted to ride on one of the humps.
 - ☒ c. Hunter sat between the humps.
 - d. All four kids rode the camel at once
3. What is a camel with one hump called?
It is called a dromedary
4. Which type of camel is hairier?
The Bactrian camel is hairier

C Read each statement and write “fact” or “opinion” on the line.

A fact is something that can be proven to be true or false.
An opinion is someone’s feeling or belief.

1. It’s fun and easy to ride a camel. opinion
2. Camels’ humps are used for storing fat. fact
3. Camels’ eyelashes keep the sand from their eyes. fact
4. Camels’ eyelashes are beautiful. opinion
5. It is cold in northern China. fact
6. Bactrian camels come from Mongolia. fact
7. Camels are wonderful animals. opinion

D Complete the summary with the correct words.

sword countries Bactrian sea dragons entrance hump legs

Ms. Monaghan’s class is going to see the camels at the Fabularium. The students talk about which 1. countries have camels. Mr. Eddy shows them the special 2. entrance to the camels, which is shaped like a needle. Hunter thinks it looks like a(n) 3. sword, and he pretends to be a robber. Then they go through the doorway and see the camels. They learn that camels have long 4. legs to keep them away from the hot sand. One of them has a single 5. hump, and it’s called a Dromedary. The other has two. It’s called a 6. Bactrian camel, and Mr. Eddy helps the children get on it for a ride. They learn that it comes from a cold country, Mongolia. They ride off toward the 7. sea dragons.